MRS. SCHOEMMEL HAS REST DAYS IN NORTH

Mrs. Lottie Schoemmel, famous woman swimmer who negotiated the English channel and the Hudson river, and who is one of the greatest long distance swimmers in the country, has been a guest of Lake Pleasant. Mrs. Schoemmel ran away from friends in New York, just for a rest, and enjoyed the bathing facilities at Lake Pleasant.

Yesterday, Mrs. Schoemmel visited the Caroga lakes, returning north last night. She goes to New York today or tomorrow. It was reported that the famous swimmer hoped to make arrangements for a swimming carnival at Caroga lake, but she entered into no negotiations there yesterday, so far as could be learned today.
